Re: Letter Regarding Applications to Transfer Control of, or Assign, International Section 214 Authorizations from SBC and BellSouth to Alloy LLC, WT Dkt. No. 00-81

Dear Ms. Salas:

We represent SBC Communications Inc. ("SBC") and BellSouth Corporation ("BellSouth"). This letter pertains to the applications filed by SBC and BellSouth on May 4, 2000 to transfer control of, or assign, international Section 214 authorizations held by affiliates and subsidiaries of SBC and BellSouth to their wireless joint venture, Alloy LLC ("Newco").¹ In response to an inquiry from the Staff, this letter revises in part the revised letter we filed in this docket September 15, 2000.

With respect to item number 4 on page 5 of the letter filed on September 15, 2000, the Applicants revise the certifications regarding Pacific Telesis Mobile Services ("PTMS") and international roaming traffic as set forth below. PTMS is currently subject to dominant carrier regulation with respect to roaming traffic carried by affiliated carriers on routes between the U.S. and Denmark, South Africa, Belgium, and Hungary.² SBC is no longer affiliated with a foreign carrier in Hungary, and therefore PTMS is no longer affiliated with foreign carrier in Hungary. Nevertheless, the Applicants agree that, after the contribution of PTMS to Newco, PTMS will continue to be subject to dominant carrier regulation with ² See International Authorizations Granted, Public Notice, Rept. No. TEL-00261, DA 00-1614, at 1 (IB rel. July 20, 2000) (noting that PTMS is subject to dominant carrier regulation with respect to roaming traffic carried by affiliated carriers on routes between the U.S. and Denmark, South Africa, Hungary, and Belgium).
